House & Grounds:

No Report at this time.

Cruising/Socials:

The Galveston Cruise at the end of March started with six boats but ended up with only three. An impromptu cruise is schedule for April 21. Dieter Junge race/cruise is in the planning stages. Contraband Days are coming up in May.

Safety:

No Report at this time.

Junior Sailing:

Junior sailing camp is schedule for June.

PIC Report:

Jimmy Dykes said he would supply a temporary slip in the marina for any PAYC member that needs a place to dock their boat. In the past some PAYC members were repairing the finger piers next to their boats, but PIC made them stop the repairs due to design conflicts. Dana Warren suggested contacting a new company in Lumberton named Placo to drive new piling in the marina. It was reported that all slip fees collected from PAYC members is required to go to maintaining the parks on the island. Jimmy Dykes suggested that club members start a writing campaign to Pt. Arthur city manager and Pt. Arthur city council. Danny Williams wants to be on the PAYC agenda for the May meeting. Ed Wiltz made a motion to form a committee in conjunction with PIC to go before the Pt. Arthur city council. The motion was seconded. The motion passed. The committee consists of: Ed Wiltz, Dana Warren, Mike Wise and Gene Kohrman as an alternate.

Old Business:

Paul Vera has sold another V-15 boat cover and a V-15 boat dolly.

New Business:

Richard Richardson made a motion to host a multi-hull regatta in October. Paul Vera seconded the motion. We are expecting to have 10 to 20 participants coming to the PAYC to race in the two day event. The motion was passed.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:46 pm.
