Harbormaster:

Gene reports that he has been getting a few boats moved around into better accommodated slips.

Membership:

We have 2 new members to welcome – Dirk Bader & Scott Elliot.

Racing:

Paul reported on the fact that we have had several dropped races due to weather constraints. The Olympic Regatta that was to have been held recently is to be rescheduled at a later date – to be announced. The very first Thursday night race of the season was cancelled due to weather as well, but will resume next Thursday. The annual Fred Grund Race is coming up on April 22nd, with the Skippers meeting to be held at 10 AM. The next big race will be the Full Moon race on May 13th with the Skippers meeting to be held at 6 pm. The Dieter Young Race will be held at the end of the month with more details to be announced in May.

House & Grounds:

A ton of things got recently repaired at the clubhouse on our recent club house work day. Thanks to all who showed up to work. We replaced faulty light fixtures in the ladies restroom, light bulbs, screens on the club house and screen house, installed a new faucet in the men's room, & other various minor repairs.

Cruising/Socials:

Barbara reports that we have our first Club sponsored Flea Market coming up on April 29th to be held from 7am to 2 pm. We will then have our ever popular Crawfish Boil from 4:00 pm till ? Please RSVP with Barbara Test if possible. Gene talked about the recent cruise to Galveston that a few of our members were able to make & by most accounts, it wasn't a very forgiving one. There will be the annual Contraband Days cruise for those interested coming up on May 6th & 7th.

Safety:

Jason reported regarding the recent CPR class that was held at the club & also more on boating safety regarding the approach to Marinas.

Junior Sailing:

Our own Cory (Glenn & Janice Thibodeaux's son) will be competing with the big boys over at the Lakewood Yacht Club on the 22nd and 23rd of April.

PIC Report:

There are reports that it doesn't look promising regarding the return of the work barge that was to be fixing the damaged pilings within the marina. The PIC reports that there is also extensive damage on both levee roads and some areas of each may end up being closed – possibly on a permanent basis.

Old Business:

Pat brought the issue to the table regarding the V-15 proposal that was recently submitted for a vote. A vote from the floor was made to table the vote until further discussion could be had regarding the matter by uniformed members. The motion carried.

New Business:

No report
Meeting was adjourned at 7:47 pm.
