Harbormaster:

Gene reported on the slips – many boats have been moved around to accommodate necessary marina repairs. Boats will return to their normal slips once the affected slips are repaired.

Membership:

New membership applications were received from Ralph Unglaube, Tom Shelley, & Sierra Thiery. Brief discussions were had regarding Rodney LeBlanc's son & whether or not a membership will be submitted.

Racing:

Paul reviewed recent race results from our Thursday night Racing series. August 12th will be the Olympic Race Regatta with a skippers meeting at 1400 hours. August 26th will be offshore Race #2 – possibly in conjunction with the 18 mile light race. Paul is looking to see if there is any interest in some Sunday racing by our club racers.

House & Grounds:

Complaints regarding the usage of improper or unapproved dock boxes were made. Suggestions were made for members to clean up around their dock boxes and their slip area.

Cruising/Socials:

There is a cruise slated for the Beaumont Riverfront on August 5th. Barbara Test reviewed the Commodores Picnic. There will be a Tex Mex party on August 12th, following the Olympic Regatta.

Safety:

Jason Tieman informed us about the "Clean Marina" program and its benefits to our Marina and the surrounding Community.

Junior Sailing:

Paul recounted the ups and downs of our recent Junior Sailing Camp. He also reports that the first "womens sailing clinic" is to be tentatively held on August 19th & 20th, starting at 9 AM.

PIC Report:

No report

Old Business:

Issues were brought up regarding the efficiency of the recently installed coin operated washer and dryer. There was a lot of discussion on this – but no resolution was offered at this time.

New Business:

No new business at this time

Meeting was adjourned at 8:05 pm.
